

ACTIVITY

Marks Work of the Louisville Federation of Catholic Societies.

Chairmen of Twenty Committees Report Progress Made.

St. Patrick's and St. Martin's Parishes Arrange For Floats.

SOUVENIR BOOK COPY READY

Continued activity marked the work of the Federation of Catholic Societies during the present week in Louisville, New Albany and Jeffersonville, for the societies in the latter two cities are now taking an active part in the work of arranging for the big convention to be held here August 18-21 inclusive. A meeting of the Convention Committee was held on Monday night at the Catholic Woman's Club, 615 West Walnut street, and a meeting of the General Committee was held on Thursday night at the same place. At both of these meetings the chairmen of the twenty committees reported good progress. At the general meeting on Thursday night delegates from the various parishes participated, each of them being entitled to two delegates, which of itself made the gathering a large one. At the meeting of the Convention Committee Chairman E. J. Conroy took up the subject of invitations, and Chairman Raymond Barrett, also of that committee, reported that he contemplated sending out 10,000 invitations, and Chairman V. B. Smith, of the Printing and Press Committee, was asked to have an estimate made of the cost of this feature, either by lithograph, engraved or printed invitations. Chairman Conroy read a letter from Architect E. W. Hillerich, in which an outline was given of what the floats ought to represent. Mr. Hillerich has kindly volunteered his services to aid in this work, and three ladies have promised him to give their assistance in instructing the women of the parishes in the work of making flowers and other decorations for the floats, all without cost. Chairman Conroy was requested to confer with Mr. Hillerich with a view of making the floats represent Catholic ideals as much as possible, accentuating the work performed by the church or some historic member thereof, at the same time avoiding offense to any creed or nationality. The committee would have it understood that the floats ought not if possible be mere floral decorations, but should represent some historic event. However, each congregation is the best judge of this, guided by the advice of their pastors. Mr. Hillerich will give the necessary advice as to the artistic part, and will be of great assistance in this important part of the work. Everything indicates that the floats will be an important adjunct to the big demonstration, but it should be borne in mind, the committee urges, that no time be lost by any parish or society in arranging for those floats. Mr. Hillerich cited Holy Cross parish as an example. The ladies of that parish were engaged for eight weeks in making floral and other decorations for their float.

It was stated that St. Martin's parish will have a float in the parade. Al H. Brumleve has been appointed Secretary of the Congressional Committee which is now looking after the work. St. Joseph's Men's Society, St. Aloysius' Young Men's and Boys' Sodality and other societies connected with the church will participate in the parade, and all are very enthusiastic. The second meeting of St. Patrick's parish was held on Monday night and the work of arranging for the float and for the procession from this congregation was augmented by the cooperation of the Ladies' Auxiliary. St. Patrick's will have a fine representation, and it ought to have, as there are 4,000 souls in this parish. Preliminary work toward arranging for floats in other parishes is being carried on according to reports received by the Convention Committee. A meeting of the Advisory Committee of the Federation has been called for Tuesday, June 18, at St. Patrick's school hall at the request of Vincent B. Smith, of the Press and Printing Committee, who desires to lay before the committee all of the information in his possession as to the probable cost of printing the souvenir book. The matter for the book has been prepared by Ed Fitzpatrick, and Chairman Smith has received bids from several firms. He wants the committee to decide about the number of illustrations, the number of pages, etc., so that the work of printing may begin some time next week. The subject matter has been approved by the Book Committee, of which John P. Cassidy is chairman.

FAVOR FIELD DAY.

At the regular meeting of Division 4, A. O. U. M., last Monday evening in the Grand Hall reports were received on the division's part in arranging for the County Board picnic at Phoenix Hill. The report was made by John P. Cassidy, who was the consensus of opinion of those present that if the picnic was a success that an attempt should be made to revive the annual field day in connection with a barbecue, this style of entertainment being very popular with the Eastern Irishmen. Robert Mitchell, Dave Reilly and Teddy O'Toole were warm advocates of the proposition and suggested that it be discussed at the quarterly meeting tomorrow. President John Hennessey appointed William P. McDonough, Thomas Lynch, Thomas Callahan, Bernard Muldoon and Dave Reilly in charge of Division 4's refreshment booth. John Coleman, the popular chef of the division, was reported on the sick list by the Visiting Committee.

WEDDINGS.

Many Young Hearts Joined Together This Week.

Cupid was busy this week in Kentucky, and many happy weddings have been recorded. Last Sunday banns were published at St. John, Hardin county, announcing the approaching wedding of Miss Lucia Cecil, of near that place, and Mr. James Flaywood, of Louisville. At Lebanon on Tuesday morning Dr. William Spalding Green and Miss Nellie Churchill Putnam were married at St. Augustine's church by the Most Rev. J. L. Spalding, D. D., Bishop of Peoria, Ill., who is an uncle of the bride and a distant relative of the groom. The Very Rev. J. A. Hogarty, pastor of the St. Augustine church, officiated at the nuptial mass after the wedding ceremony. Mrs. L. A. Spalding, sister of the bride, acted as matron of honor; Mr. Madden Green, brother of the groom, of Morganfield, best man. The bridemaids were Misses Katie Putnam, Elizabeth Green and Wickliffe McAtee, and the ushers were Messrs. R. S. Putnam, J. LaMotte Spalding, Robert Spalding and Walter Smith. Immediately after the ceremony the bride party left on a wedding trip. The marriage of Miss Nannie Welsh and James Francis Gleason was solemnized Tuesday at St. Paul's church in Lexington. The bride was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Agatha Welsh, and the bridegroom's brother, Edmund Gleason. The bridegroom is one of the proprietors of the Reed Hotel. The marriage of Miss Olivia Medley and John H. Mischel was solemnized at St. Stephen's church at 7 o'clock Tuesday morning and was attended by the bride's father, Dr. J. H. Medley, and the groom's father, Dr. J. H. Mischel. The bride is the daughter of Dr. J. H. Medley, and the groom is a prominent business man, being a member of the Michel Monument Works. They will spend several weeks in the East, after which they will reside in Owensboro. Miss Lillian Ray, of Rineyville, and A. B. Alvey, of the county, were married Tuesday morning at St. Bridget's church at Vine Grove by the Rev. Father Ruff. This is the first marriage ceremony performed by Father Ruff since assuming his new pastorate.

FIELD MASS

Held on Washington Monument Grounds Sunday.

A memorial field mass in honor of the dead of the Spanish-American war was celebrated on the Washington monument grounds last Saturday in the presence of Cardinal Gibbons and a throng of people that numbered thousands. The service was held under the auspices of the Admiral George Dewey Camp, United Spanish War Veterans. The veterans and the Fourth Degree members of the Knights of Columbus, who came to Washington for the unveiling of the Columbus memorial, acted as an escort of honor for the Cardinal and the officers of the mass from St. Patrick's church to the improvised sanctuary in the shadow of Washington monument. The Rev. Charles M. Bart was the celebrant of the mass. Mr. William T. Russell, pastor of St. Patrick's church, delivered a sermon on "Patriotism." He declared any suspicion that a Catholic was not absolutely true to his country. "No man," he declared, "can be a loyal Catholic who is not loyal to the flag of his country. Government is authority." Louisville people who have returned from Washington say the field mass was the most imposing sight they ever witnessed.

SKYSCRAPER.

The Southern National Life Insurance Company, with headquarters in this city, contemplates erecting a monster skyscraper office building on the southeast corner of Fourth and Market. President Williams says it will have twenty-five stories and rise 230 feet from the ground level. This will make it the tallest building in the South and seventy-five feet higher than any building in Louisville. If the work is started next spring it is expected to have the building completed before the end of the year.

DINNER AND DANCE.

Mackin Council, Y. M. I., will this evening give a complimentary dinner and dance at Benning's in honor of the "Terrace Tavern" cast and chorus. The dancing will follow from 8 till 11 o'clock. One hundred dollars will be laid, and a most enjoyable evening is assured those who attend.

GREATEST MARINER IN HISTORY

At the threshold of the capital of the greatest nation born in the hemisphere he discovered four centuries and two decades ago a memorial to Christopher Columbus was unveiled Saturday. Facing the majestic marble figure of the greatest mariner of all time, President Taft paid a tribute to his persevering genius and lofty imagination. The cord which swept aside the flags that veiled the memorial was drawn by the great discoverer himself, the Italian Ambassador, and one of the chief addresses was delivered by Justice Victor J. Dowling, of the Supreme Court of New York, an eminent member of the Knights of Columbus, through the activity of which Congress was induced to authorize the rearing of the memorial which stands in the Plaza before the Union Station, three blocks from the Capitol. The non-sectarian character of the official ceremony was indicated by the presence of Bishop Wilbur T. Thirkield, a Methodist, who pronounced the benediction.

The ceremony was attended by a huge demonstration. An imposing parade—military and civic—with thousands of men in line, passed in review before the President, who stood on the grandstand at the base of the memorial. The greater part of the pageant was composed of Knights of Columbus from every section of the country. As each Knight passed in review he saluted the head of the nation. Bluejackets from the first division of the Atlantic fleet, several battalions of Marines, and troops from the Army and Navy, also formed the first section of the parade. Philander C. Knox, Secretary of State, presided at the unveiling exercises. The Marquis Cusani Connelley, the Italian Ambassador, released the American flag which hid the statue of his illustrious countryman from view. As the effigy was released a battery of United States artillery fired a salute of twenty-one guns.

President Taft pronounced the country's eulogy upon the intrepid sailor who tore the mantle of mystery from the unknown Atlantic and revealed a continent. "The greatest mariner of history," was the President's encomium. Justice Victor J. Dowling, of the New York Supreme Court, eulogized Columbus, and urged a law for the setting apart of "Columbus day" as a national holiday. He deplored the fact that the discoverer had been deprived of the prestige of having his name given to the land he devoted his life to make known. At night Washington was brilliant with a display of fireworks in celebration of the occasion. The exercises were closed for the day by a public dinner at which Cardinal Gibbons made the principal address. The memorial stands on the plaza of the Union Station. A granite shaft rises forty-six feet out of the fountain, forming the background of a marble heroic statue of Columbus, wrapped in a cloak of his period. Surmounting the shaft is a globe, supported on the wings of four American eagles. The statue stands on the prow of a ship. At the feet is a graceful feminine form typifying "Discovery." The fountain is semi-circular, seventy feet long and sixty-five feet wide. Ferdinand and Isabella of Spain are honored with a medallion on the rear of the shaft. The figure of an Indian on one side of the shaft, about to take an arrow from his quiver, and a patristical Caucasian on the other, represents the New and Old Worlds. Two lions guard the extremities of the granite balustrade in front of the fountain.

GRADUATING EXERCISES.

An artistic and carefully arranged programme will be rendered at the graduating exercises of the Academy of Our Lady of Mercy, East Broadway, which will take place in the academy hall Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock. Diplomas will be awarded to Miss Loretta A. Dwyer, the valedictorian, and Misses C. Louise Fowler, Alexandra Simon and Helms A. James. The Academy of Mercy is under the direction of the Sisters of Mercy, who have gained a world-wide reputation as educators of girls and young women.

SERGEANT MOLLY FITCHER.

Last week a movement was started in New York City to place in the Hall of Fame the bust of Irish Molly Fitcher, the only woman Sergeant in the United States army. Chauncey M. Dapew is an enthusiastic supporter of the plan. It was in the important movements of the year 1778 that at the battle of Monmouth Molly Fitcher was carrying water to her husband, who was a gunner at one piece of artillery in a battery. He was killed and the Lieutenant proposed to remove the piece out of danger, when the woman said, "I can do everything my husband could." She performed her husband's duties better than he could have done. The next morning she was taken before Gen. Washington, her wonderful act was reported and its influence upon the fate of the battle, which was a victory, and Washington made her at once a Sergeant in the army, to stand on the rolls in that rank as long as she lived.

"OUR MARY."

Famous American Actress An Enthusiastic Home Ruler.

Though many were aware that Mme. Navarro (our Mary Anderson) had for quite a number of years taken a deep interest in social and charitable work among the Irish poor, few suspected until recently that she was an enthusiastic home ruler. Although some of the most eminent women in society failed to secure seats in the ladies' gallery of the House of Commons to hear the debate on the home rule bill, the famous actress was a conspicuous figure there every night. She and Mrs. J. W. Mackey occupied adjoining seats and were enthusiastic in their expressions of admiration for the eloquence of the Irish members. Sometimes they even found difficulty in restraining themselves from marking their approval by applause—an action which would of course have caused their immediate removal. The presence of Mary Anderson in the gallery is entirely due to the self-sacrifice of Mrs. John Redmond, who managed to secure a seat through the agency, peculiarly enough, of an English Tory member—her own husband being unlucky enough to draw a blank in the ballot that is held for seats in the limited accommodation of the gallery. It required a fine spirit of self-abnegation for Mrs. Redmond to forfeit the opportunity of hearing her husband on such an auspicious and historic occasion, but she has a very high regard for Mme. Navarro, so she gave her the pass very cheerfully.

COUNTY BOARD.

Hibernians to Hold Quarterly Meeting Tomorrow.

Tomorrow afternoon the Ancient Order of Hibernians of Louisville will hold their regular quarterly meeting at Bertrand Hall under the auspices of the County Board. This will be one of the most interesting and important meetings of the year, and therefore the county and division officers would be pleased to see every member of the order present. Rev. Father O'Sullivan, the eloquent Dominican, will be present and deliver an address well worth hearing. The County Board will hear reports from representatives in the local Catholic Federation and will determine the part the Hibernians will play when the national convention meets here in August. Matters pertaining to the national and State conventions of the order will also be presented and committees appointed. Final arrangements will also be announced for the Hibernian reunion and picnic, which takes place at Phoenix Hill Park on Monday, June 24. Committees from all the divisions are doing good work for this celebration, and it is said that a programme will be presented that will please everybody. It is confidently expected this picnic will bring together more people than have ever seen at a Hibernian celebration in Kentucky.

RECENT DEATHS.

Heartfelt sympathy for their many friends is extended to Michael and Margaret McGrath, 367 North Twenty-sixth street, on the death of their eight-year-old son Edwin, who was called to his eternal reward last Sunday. The funeral took place Monday, the interment being in St. Louis cemetery.

Fred Glasser, well known and respected of the East End, where he had spent nearly all his life, died Monday evening at his home, West 12th street and Fair avenue. Besides his wife, Mrs. Rose Glasser, he leaves many relatives who mourn his death. The funeral was held Thursday morning at St. John's church, Rev. Father Schumann being celebrant of the mass of requiem.

Funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Catherine Schofield were held Sunday afternoon at the Church of Our Lady, Rev. Father Conniff officiating. Mrs. Schofield was born in Ireland seventy-five years ago, but lived here nearly all her life and was a devout member of the Church of Our Lady. Surviving her are two daughters, Mrs. Martin Mooney and Mrs. John Lally, both of this city.

GENERAL CHAPTER.

Very Rev. Gilbert Francis, C. S. C., Superior General of the Order of the Holy Cross, has sent out announcements of the list of delegates to the sessions of the General Chapter of the order, which will be held at the University of Notre Dame, Indiana, beginning on August 1, and continuing for a week. The General Chapter meets every six years to legislate for its members in all parts of the world.

POLICEMEN

Held Annual Memorial Services For Their Deceased Members.

Two Thousand Bluecoats at Vespers in St. Patrick's Cathedral.

Chaplain Sullivan in Eloquent Sermon Praises the Force.

MONSIGNOR LAVELLE'S WARNING

When the annual memorial services for the members of the New York City police force were held St. Patrick's Cathedral was crowded, hundreds standing in the aisles, while many hundreds more could not gain admittance. Two thousand policemen, with their inspectors, Captains, Lieutenants and Sergeants, and headed by Chief Inspector Schmitt, marched to the Cathedral. Commissioner Waldo and Mrs. Waldo met the procession at the Fifth avenue entrance. The Commissioner and his staff were met inside the Cathedral by Mr. Lavelle and the Rev. Francis J. Sullivan, Chaplain of the police department. Commissioner Waldo and Mrs. Waldo sat in the first row, and behind them were the Deputy Commissioners, Mr. Lavelle, in welcoming the bluecoats to the Cathedral, said he wanted to take the opportunity of warning the policemen of that which he considered their greatest temptation. "This temptation," he said, "is the temptation of cynicism. It is the idea that good men can't exist. The policeman sees so much sin all about him in the performance of his duties that there is danger he may entirely overlook the good and brave. I hope that these services will help him to dispel such notions, and also help him to be good in spite of the evil, which he sees on every hand."

Father Francis Sullivan delivered a sermon worthy the occasion, in which he said: "You hold a position of trust that you ought to be proud of. You are the selected of God. You are the chosen of the people. You are the chosen of the city. You are the chosen of the State. You are the chosen of the Nation. You are the chosen of the World. BIRDS OF A FEATHER.

Gov. McCreary's appointment of Dan O'Sullivan as Prison Commissioner simply confirms the charges made by Congressman Ben Johnson before the gubernatorial primary, that the present administration crew were very anti-Catholic in all their policies. Apostate Catholics seem to have the call with the powers that be at Frankfort, Percy (christened Purcell) Italy dictating the appointment of O'Sullivan.

ROOSEVELT'S BULLDOZING.

Comparing Theodore Roosevelt of 1904 with Theodore Roosevelt of 1912, leading papers of New York charge that he is having a brain-storm. This is because President Taft has selected Elihu Root, whom the Colonel described eight years ago as "the ablest man in the public life of this or any other country," as temporary Chairman of the Republican national convention. Four years ago Col. Roosevelt succeeded in bulldozing the Republican party by the threat that "if they don't take Taft they will get me." Now he is bulldozing it by the threat to bolt and destroy it if the convention is not surrendered into his hands. There used to be a Republican party that managed its own conventions and nominated its own candidates for President. It regarded itself as greater than any individual. It recognized no man's "divine right" and submitted to no man's dictatorship. The old Republican party seems to have passed away. After four years of Hanna bossism and eight years of Roosevelt bossism it has lost its moral courage and its independence and its self-respect. It is cowardly and craven. Even the President of the United States offers a feeble and apologetic resistance to the engineer tactics of his term antagonists. Neither Taft nor Roosevelt has shown any regard for the dignity of the high office that all good citizens hold dear, but this year the Democrats will place there a statesman who will again bring to the Presidency the prestige that exalted office enjoyed during the incumbency of our greatest and wisest statesmen.

The Evening Post informs its readers that "various uncouth impossibilities," such as Mayor Fitzgerald, of Boston, or Mayor Preston, of Baltimore, are talked of for the Democratic nomination for the Vice Presidency. Will our "unprejudiced" neighbor enlighten the people in what manner either is more uncouth than he who wrote the foregoing? Tell the truth. Was it not the name only that aroused the Post's ire?

ENGINE OF DEATH.

The automobile as a death dealing adjunct of civilization is giving officials everywhere more concern than street cars or steam roads, or both. The Coroner of Chicago suggests a remedy that is worthy a trial and might prove effective. He declares that "arrests and fines are as futile as a scolding from a friend of the victim. The wealthy owner does not care for a fine. What is needed is that carelessness with an automobile, resulting in injury or death of a person, shall be treated as assault with a deadly weapon, so that criminal carelessness may be punished with the penalty of a crime. Automobile deaths in this county alone have increased from five in 1905 to seventy-five last year, and they will exceed 100 this year. Street-car fatalities are on the decrease because of better traffic disposal, but automobilists are caring less each month for the comfort and safety of others or themselves."

The Kentucky Irish American has from the first contended for laws that would protect all persons and work no injustice to the autists, but from what has happened in this city and county would favor carrying out the punishment above suggested.

There were 1,665 arrests in Louisville during the month of May. This is a great record for the police, and also for Ireland, as not a native of that country was among the great number. Germany, France and Italy combined are charged with only eight, which proves that foreign residents here are law abiding.

Respectful acknowledgement is made of numerous social invitations from our colleges and academies to their commencement and closing exercises. Absence from them is solely due to circumstances beyond our control, but we live in the hope that next year they will have so changed that we may attend them all.

Seventeen families were disrupted through the divorce route at Saturday's joint session of the Jefferson Circuit Court. The next Legislature should adopt laws that will restrict this awful and growing evil.

It would be consistent on Gen. Nelson A. Miles' part if he should return the Catholic portion of the pension he is now receiving from the Government.

Col. Theodore Roosevelt, who knows his man, referred to Gen. Nelson Miles as "a gold-laced cock" and "a garrulous old man."

Gov. McCreary's idea of a good Democrat seems to be one who joins hands with the Republicans in local elections.

COMMENCEMENT

Exercises of School Held in St. Louis Bertrand Church.

The commencement exercises of St. Louis Bertrand's school were held in the church Wednesday evening in connection with recitation of the rosary, a sermon on Christian education and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Grammar school diplomas were conferred upon Margaret C. Clotte, Mary Victor Collins, Irene P. Hennessy, Mildred J. Higgins, Michael J. Hogan, Catherine E. Meyer, Edward D. McNally, Mary E. McNally and Elizabeth S. Mutschman. The Holy Rosary Alumnae scholarship was awarded to Mildred J. Higgins and the Academy scholarship to Elizabeth S. Mutschman. The premium for regular attendance was awarded to Margaret C. Clotte and preliminary for prompt and regular attendance were awarded to Mary E. McNally and Irene P. Hennessy. Premiums for penmanship were awarded to Roy Harp, Raymond Kenealey, John Kilkenny, Bertrand Higgins, Jerome Vanderventer, John Clavin, Lyle Piper, George Hardman, Cecelia McNally, Evelyn Smith, Mary Rattigan, Virginia Kerins, James McCormack, Conrad Riley and Regina Baldwin.

HAPPY UNION.

A large concourse of friends and relatives witnessed the Reihan-Gleeson nuptials, which took place at the Cathedral of the Assumption on Wednesday afternoon. Miss Margaret Reihan and Dennis Joseph Gleeson being united in marriage by Rev. Father Rock, who prefaced the ceremony with a short and instructive talk on the vows of matrimony. Miss Anna Lee Rolhan acted as bridesmaid and James Otto Kaufman as best man. Albert D. Gregg, Cary Evans, Arthur Fahey and M. L. Murphy were ushers. After an informal reception at the home of the bride the newly married couple left on an Eastern bridal tour and on their return will be at home to friends in their apartments, 2116 Slaughter avenue.

CATHOLIC LEAGUE SCHEDULE.

Three good games are expected in the Catholic League tomorrow at Shawnee Park—St. William's vs. St. Anthony, St. Charles vs. Holy Cross and St. Louis Bertrand vs. Holy Trinity. The other two teams, St. Brigid and St. Martin, will meet at Spring Bank Park and battle for East End supremacy. By their overwhelming victory over St. Brigid last Sunday St. Charles went into first place. St. William's, their closest competitor, being to Holy Trinity. The other teams are closely bunched and a victory either way cuts quite a figure in the standing, which is as follows:

Club	Played	Won	Lost	Pctg.
St. Charles	6	6	0	1.000
St. William's	6	5	1	.833
Holy Trinity	6	3	3	.500
St. Anthony's	6	3	3	.500
Holy Cross	6	2	4	.333
St. Louis Ber.	6	2	4	.333
St. Brigid's	6	2	4	.333
St. Martin's	6	1	5	.167

JOLLY STAG PARTY.

James Naughton, Jr., the well known young druggist, entertained twenty of his gentlemen friends on Friday night of last week at his home, 1911 West Market street. He was assisted in receiving by his mother and father, and all enjoyed one big night. An elegant buffet luncheon was served, and vocal and instrumental numbers rendered by Fred Wells, Charles McKune and Harry Swann added to the pleasure of the evening.

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing
the Past Week—General
News Notes.

Division 3's social club is indeed a live wire. They are arranging for a moonlight excursion next month. Division 2 is making steady progress and will have a good report to make when the State convention meets here.

In the Eastern cities the Hibernian military companies were prominent in the parade and Memorial day exercises.

The lawn fete and enshrine of the Ladies' Auxiliary on Monday night was well attended and all spent a pleasant evening.

Divisions 3 and 4 are still neck and neck in the race for membership, the latter still holding the lead by a small margin.

With the initiation of sixty candidates Milwaukee keeps its place at the top with the largest division of the Ancient Order in the country.

Sergeant Pat Meehin and Patrolman James Doran are taking advantage of their vacation to attend meetings and renew old friendships with their Hibernian friends.

Members of the order throughout the city will rejoice to learn that Treasurer Thomas Lawler, of Division 1, is recovering from his illness and will soon be able to be out again.

Capt. John B. Murphy, Police Commissioner in Jeffersonville and one of the best known Hibernians in Indiana, is recovering from an illness that confined him to his home for the past two weeks.

Division 4 meets Monday night and President Hennessy urges all members to be present. The proceedings of the County Board meeting will be reported and quite an amount of important business will be transacted.

Members of Division 1 were elated over the increased attendance Tuesday night, and all had the glad hand for Thomas Keenan, Jr., James Twihig and Thomas Shelley, one of the few remaining pioneer members of the order in Louisville.

AGGRESSIVENESS

Lacking in Playing of the Louisville Base Ball Club.

Manager Carr's hustling Kansas City team will meet the Colonels again today, and tomorrow will play a double-header, the extra game being a postponed one from April 22. Carr's club is resting easy in fourth position and only half a dozen games behind the leaders, many critics freely predicting that the pennant race will narrow down to a race between them and Columbus, with Minneapolis having an outside chance. The most striking characteristic of the teams has been their aggressiveness.

Thus far, the Colonels have been noticeably to the fore on account of Louisville's deficiency in that respect, every man on the team seeming either too timid or indifferent to put a little ginger in his work or protest strongly at the unfair decisions, which they have received in abundance lately. This is not fair or just to either the management or the public, and Manager Tighe will have to bear the responsibility for this neglect. There is no gainsaying the fact that Louisville is a splendid ball town and will support a hustling team, even if it is losing, but the indifferent work of some of the team lately deserves censure, as with the long stretch of home games the club still has a chance to become a contender in the race.

EACH GET TEN DAYS.

The Board of Safety has granted each of the following members of the local police force ten days' vacation this month: Sergeant Pat Meehin, J. J. Gallagher, James Doran, John McCue, Tom Fitzgibbon, Edward McWeaver, Jerry O'Leary, W. J. Conners, Charles W. Hickey, Mike Moran, Lieut. Edward Pulford, Edward Kennedy, John Hession and Thomas O'Brien. This is the desirable season for a vacation among the police and those mentioned consider themselves in luck.

FORTY HOURS' PRAYER.

The Forty Hours' devotion is appointed for St. Peter Claver's church tomorrow, and will begin at the high mass and conclude Tuesday evening. A number of the local clergy will assist the pastor and a large attendance is looked for at all the services.

CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

The regular monthly meeting of the Central Committee, C. K. of A., will be held next Friday night at St. Mary's Hall. There will be a discussion of several important questions, and therefore Catholic Knights as well as delegates are asked to be there.

ST. ANN'S SCHOOL EXERCISES.

The children of St. Ann's school will hold their annual closing exercises in the school hall, Seventh and Davies avenue, Tuesday evening, June 26, and the preceding Monday, June 24, will entertain with a social in the afternoon and evening, with no charge for admission.

BLESSED THE POLICE.

Hundreds of New York policemen, at the close of their special memorial service held in St. Patrick's Cathedral last Sunday, surrounded Cardinal Farley as he was about to enter his residence, and kneeling in the grass, asked for his blessing. The Cardinal, deeply touched by this spontaneous evidence of reverence and affection, spoke briefly to the men as they knelt before him.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

Late News That Will Interest
Members Here and Elsewhere.

Indianapolis Council conferred the three degrees on a large class last Sunday.

Fort Wayne Council is the largest in Indiana, having an enrollment of 800 members.

Buffalo Knights will give a banquet Monday night in honor of Archbishop Keane.

The fourth degree was exemplified before a class of 200 from Missouri and Kansas at St. Joseph last Sunday.

Inclusive of the recent Fort Wayne initiation, Indiana's fourth degree membership approximates about 600.

The Texas State Council has voted to send its new and retiring State Chaplains to the Columbus unveiling ceremonies at Washington.

Minneapolis Knights assisted at the Decoration day memorial services and in the evening conferred the third degree on a large class.

Initiations tomorrow at Vincennes and Crawfordsville will largely increase the Indiana membership, which now is approaching the 9,000 mark.

Fifty rooms have been reserved at the Raleigh Hotel for the accommodation of Louisville Knights attending the Columbus statue unveiling at Washington.

The Milwaukee councils have added another hundred to their ranks. The Knights of Kenosha, Wis., have purchased for $18,000 the building adjoining the one they now own.

PRESENTATION ACADEMY.

Invitations are being issued for the annual commencement of Presentation Academy. Fourth and Breckinridge, on Monday morning, June 17. The programme of exercises this year will surpass any ever witnessed in this city, and will speak loudly for the excellence of this splendid academy.

ST. ELIZABETH'S.

The congregation of St. Elizabeth's church, East Burnett avenue, will entertain with a euchre and lotto party on the church lawn on the night of June 18. On the day following a lawn fete and festival will be held on the church grounds during the afternoon and evening.

ST. CECILIA'S COMMENCEMENT.

The children of St. Cecilia's school will hold their annual commencement in the school hall, Twenty-sixth and St. Cecilia streets, Wednesday evening, June 19, at 7:30 o'clock. Tickets of admission are twenty-five cents.

USEFUL LIFE CLOSED.

Francis Bowling, aged sixty-two years, died at the best known of New York and years a resident of Louisville. He is survived by his wife and the following children: Lancaster Bowling, Kendrick Bowling, Bernard Bowling and Bloom Bowling and Mrs. Virgil O'Bryan and Miss Mary Jane Bowling.

COVINGTON.

Rev. Father B. Lehr, who has been visiting in Switzerland, returned to Covington last Sunday. He has been assigned to St. Anthony's church at DeCoursey, taking the place of Father Otto Hafen, who left this week for Europe. Last Sunday afternoon at the convent of Notre Dame, East Sixth street, the blessing took place of the vestments and linens destined for poor churches. They were made by the Tabernacle Society of Kentucky.

UNITY COUNCIL OUTING.

Unity Council, Y. M. I., will have its annual picnic outing at Glenwood Park on June 13. The Hendrix Stock Company will present "The Mad Miser" in the summer theater. The cast is composed of such well known amateur performers as Lena Shickel, Frances Kiebert, Antoinette Zettel, Carl Kemp, Joseph Oeswein, Joseph Kehli, William Koepfer and Julius R. Bodenmueller.

PASSED AWAY WHILE PRAYING.

Just after he had received holy communion, and while he was kneeling in prayer in his pew, Abel Montgomery, a respected citizen of Owensboro, died of heart trouble Sunday morning at St. Paul's church. He died so quietly that those near him noticed nothing amiss until he failed to arise to leave the church with the congregation and a touch and look disclosed the fact that he had died in prayer.

ORDAINED NINETEEN.

During an impressive ceremony, which commenced with a Pontifical low mass in St. Patrick's Cathedral last Saturday morning, Cardinal Farley ordained nineteen young men to the priesthood and conferred deaconship upon fifteen others. The new priests and deacons studied in St. Joseph's Seminary, Duwoodle, whither the deacons will return for another year, after which they will be ordained priests. Among those elevated to the priesthood were Rev. James Whitfield, of Nashville, Tenn.

MILES FALLS.

The meeting called last week to organize a court of the Guardians of Liberty in Indianapolis and addressed by Gen. Nelson Miles, Congressman Haines and Preacher Barnett, was a dismal failure. Only a handful of people were present, and the presentation of the organization for approval was deferred to another meeting. Miles, Haines and Barnett manifested their hostility to Catholics and reiterated the baseless charges they made in Louisville.

ENTHUSIASM

Prevailed Tuesday Night at Meeting of Division 1, A. O. H.

Enthusiasm marked the meeting of Division 1, A. O. H., Tuesday night, when there was a notable increase in attendance, which has been steadily growing under the administration of President Martin Cusick and the present officers. The division accepted an invitation to the lawn fête and summer festival for Sts. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital and voted to attend. Patrick Stone and Edward Gradick were reported still unable to follow their occupations, and benefits were approved for all on the sick list. Daniel McCarthy delivered an address, in which he pointed to the pride Catholic Irishmen should feel in the Ancient Order and the duty resting upon members to make the coming annual picnic a success. William M. Higgins spoke for the Catholic Federation, in which the Hibernians have always been interested. Division 1 will do its part and will have its entire membership in the parade. In answer to repeated calls President Cusick made a timely talk upon the characteristics of the Irish people and the part they are playing for the advancement of every worthy public movement.

MACKIN COUNCIL

Will Send Six Delegates to Owensboro Convention.

Mackin Council held a fairly well attended meeting Monday night, which was enlivened by spirited talks and the election of six delegates and alternates to the Grand Council of the Kentucky Jurisdiction, which meets this year at Owensboro. The delegates chosen are Robert T. Burke, Rev. Father Martin Wiedekamp, Dr. J. A. Casper, L. Sherry Cuniff, Al Link and Clyde Crane, the alternates being Joseph Higgins, Val Kast, Thomas D. Cline, George J. Lautz, Thomas Yount and George Simons. Committees were present from Trinity end Unity Councils to formulate plans for the part the Y. M. I. would take in the Catholic Federation parade and decide upon the subject for their float. Rev. Father Fagan was introduced and delivered a short address that was heartily applauded. Upon all sides was heard favorable comment for the lawn tennis court, which has already developed some fast players. Unofficial reports point to the realization of over $500 from the recent opera of the Choral Club. The council made a liberal donation to the summer festival for Sts. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital and accepted the invitation to attend the Owensboro convention.

musical concert and recital to be given next Friday night at the Women's Club by Patrick O'Sullivan, assisted by Mrs. Carrie Rothchild Sapalsky and Douglas Webb. Mr. O'Sullivan has won distinction in Europe and this country, and his recital is exciting interest. As an exponent of the modern Celtic school of music Mr. O'Sullivan is recognized as one of genius and authority, and his compositions have been received with great enthusiasm both in this country and abroad. The revival of Gaelic art, literary and musical, has made tremendous strides in the past few years, and to those to whom the Irish music makes intimate appeal, as well as to the cultured musician, this concert should be of particular interest. Tickets have been placed on sale at Smith & Nixon's.

LOSS TO CITY.

The city of Louisville, and especially the Dominican parish, mourns the death of Joseph H. Wagner, who for the past thirty-six years was engaged in the sheet iron and metal business at 1147 South Seventh street. Five weeks ago the deceased suffered injuries in a runaway, and though not dangerous they caused pneumonia, which proved fatal. Joseph Wagner was a native of Indiana, but came here when a young man, and his integrity and uprightness of character and geniality of disposition earned him the respect and esteem of all with whom he was associated in business or socially. He is survived by three sons, E. H., T. W. and J. C. Wagner; two daughters, Elvira and Sister Josepha, of the Sacred Heart Academy; three sisters, Mrs. Mary Thelma and Sister Bonaventura, of Ferdinand, Ind., and Sister Baptista, of Birmingham, and a brother, the Rev. Morris Wagner, of Mariabell, Ind. The funeral took place from St. Louis Bertrand's on Saturday morning, the church being thronged by sorrowing friends and relatives.

FONTAINE FERRY.

Another high class vaudeville bill will be presented the patrons of Fontaine Ferry Park next week. Every day and night marks a great increase in attendance at this popular summer amusement resort. The free band concerts are a delight to the thousands of visitors, as are also the various amusement devices now in full operation.

CATHOLIC LEAGUE SCHEDULE.

Much interest is being manifested in the race for the pennant in the Catholic Baseball League, as is evidenced by the increased attendance at the games. Every Sunday the league sport has been the slogan of the league since its opening, and it is being freely predicted that the league will prove to be a nucleus for the forming of a permanent Catholic athletic organization on the principles of the Y. M. C. A. The following is the schedule for tomorrow: St. William vs. Holy Trinity.

ENLIGHTENED.

Talks on Irish Unity and Future of Ancient Order.

Division 3, A. O. H., held a largely attended meeting Monday night, at which John F. Morris delivered a splendid address on the benefits of unity among Irishmen and matters pertaining to the future of Division 3 and the Ancient Order were earnestly discussed by Messrs. Thomas Kennedy, John Karma, ex-County President Thomas Quinn, W. R. Campbell, Sergeant John Maloney, John Hession, Dan Dougherty, John Riey, John Price and others, who enlightened the members on their duties. President Hourigan referred three applications and announced that Joseph Lannan, James McCue and Charles Riley were recovering from their illness. Attorney Lawrence Mackey, after reporting the proceedings of the Catholic Federation, invited all to the meetings at the Catholic Woman's Club on the second and fourth Thursday of each month. Much interest was manifested in the annual picnic to be held at Phoenix Hill Park on June 24, and all promised to boost this reunion in every way possible. Announcement was also made that the Hibernian Social Club had secured one of the best steamboats for a moonlight excursion on the evening of July 29.

FRANKFORT.

Preparing for a Patriotic Fourth of July Holiday.

At a special meeting of Frankfort Council, Knights of Columbus, held last Wednesday evening, the General Plenic Committee, composed of the council, organized and elected the following officers: P. B. Lillis, Chairman; J. J. Canty, Secretary, and John A. Brisian, Treasurer. The Chairman then appointed various committees, that will have charge of and assist in making the second annual outing, to be given on July 4, a big success.

The Publicity and Promotion Committee, that had charge of the initial outing last year that proved such a phenomenal success in every way, will serve again this year, and is composed of the following well known members: John R. Sower, Chairman; L. T. Schreff, J. J. Oerther, P. F. Manning, J. J. King, Charles Whitehead and J. J. Brisian. It goes without saying that the 1912 outing on July 4 will be well advertised throughout Kentucky. It is the intention of Frankfort Council to make its second annual outing practically a reunion of Knights of Columbus from all over the State, and in a few days invitations will be mailed to all.

Several hundred visiting Knights in Frankfort on that day. Every amusement device that is usually found at county fairs and picnics as well as several new and novel attractions that have been specially secured for this event will be found on the grounds, situated about a mile and a half from the center of the city. Glenwood Park is one of the most ideal spots in all Kentucky for an all-day and evening outing, and a modern summer theater and spacious dancing pavilion, and numerous large shade trees will enable all who attend to spend a long day of unalloyed pleasure, far away from the sweltering heat and the dusty city. Many special features never before presented at an outing in Frankfort or elsewhere are being arranged for, due announcement of which will be made later. In the meantime let every Knight of Columbus in Kentucky make arrangements to come and bring wives, sisters and sweethearts to the historic little city nestled among the verdant hills through which the picturesque Kentucky slowly winds its way, and they may rest assured that the cordial and brotherly welcome that will be accorded them by the K. of C.'s of Frankfort and the pleasure they will derive from their visit to the Capital City will amply repay them for their journey.

TOKEN FOR MR. EHLMANN.

Hilmar Ehrmann, the well known local business man, was the guest of the Queen of Nelson Bowling Club and the officers of the Louisville Bowling Association at a supper given in his honor at the residence of John Lubbers, of West Jefferson street, Wednesday evening, and during the course of the evening was presented with a handsome crayon portrait, elegantly framed, of himself, the presentation being made by Albert F. Martin in a neat speech. Mr. Ehrmann was barely able to respond, being nearly overcome with surprise, but expressed his hearty thanks for the bowlers' token of friendship.

CHILDREN'S FIRST COMMUNION.

Hundreds of parents and relatives had the pleasure of seeing large classes of children receive their first holy communion last Sunday morning. At St. Cecilia's church 131 boys and girls approached the holy table, and at Holy Name church in South Louisville Rev. Father O'Connor administered the sacrament to a class of over seventy. Quite a number of children also received their first communion at St. Michael's on Brook street and at St. Francis of Assisi on the Bardstown road.

AFTER MANY YEARS.

Dennis Gleason, for many years a well known resident of New Albany and now connected with the street department of that city, is arranging to leave soon to spend the summer in Ireland, visiting relatives and the scenes of his boyhood.
